Advisory Board Nomination Form

“In order to make Amiga a great company, delivering the type of innovative products that users desire, it is imperative that the Spirit of Amiga flow throughout our products, and that Spirit is the community.” Said Jim Collas - President of Amiga

Amiga is creating an Amiga Advisory Council that will consist of members from the community and the Amiga leadership team. Candidates will be selected over the next 30 days from nominees submitted to Amiga. Amiga will be evaluating and selecting the candidates based on the following criteria.

- Past experience and knowledge of Amiga products
- Involvement with Amiga user groups or other Amiga community organizations
- Amiga Dealers and Distributors
- Amiga Developers

* Advisory Council communication will be in English and will primarily be done via the internet.
